CASE NUMBER: SA-12-CA-1002-FB-HB

PLAINTIFFS’ FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION

Plaintiff John Eakin, through undersigned counsel, submits the following First Request for Production of Documents to Defendants American Battle Monuments (ABMC), Max Cleland, U.S. Department of Defense (DoD), Chuck Hagel, W. Montague Winfield and Johnnie E. Webb to be responded to within thirty (30) days of service in accord with Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

DEFINITIONS

1. “Plaintiff” means and refers to the plaintiff in this lawsuit, John Eakin.
2. “Defendants” means and refers to the defendants in this lawsuit, American Battle Monuments Commission, Max Cleland, U.S. Department of Defense, Chuck Hagel, W. Montague Winfield and Johnnie E. Webb, individually and collectively, as contextually appropriate, including any persons associated with them or authorized to act on their behalf, including any employees or officials or agencies therein.
3. “Tom Holland” means Thomas D. Holland, Scientific Director, JPAC-CIL.

4. “Kelly K. McKeague” means Major General Kelly K. McKeague, USAF, Commander JPAC.

5. “Robert Richeson” means Robert Richeson, J2 Section, JPAC and successor organizations.

6. “Lawrence Gonzales” means Lawrence Gonzales, J2 Section, JPAC and successor organizations.

7. “You” and “your” means and refers to Defendants and any persons associated with it, including, but not limited to, subsidiaries or affiliated entities, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, predecessors, successors, assigns, attorneys, and/or any of them.

8. The words “relate, ” “relating, ” “pertain, ” “pertaining, ” “reference, ” “referencing, ” “refer, ” “referring, ” and/or derivatives thereof, whether followed by a preposition or not, have the broadest meaning that may be accorded to them and include, but are not limited to, the following: directly or indirectly mentioning, describing, referring to, pertaining to, being connected with, setting forth, discussing, commenting upon, analyzing, supporting, contradicting, proving, disproving, referring to, constituting, concerning, and/or connected, or reflecting in any way upon the stated subject matter of a given request.

9. “Person” and “persons” mean any individual, corporation, firm, company, partnership, joint venture, association, unincorporated association, governmental or public agency, and/or all other legal entities.

10. “Document, ” “documents and things, ” and “electronically stored information” (“ESI”) have the fullest meaning and applicable scope as possible under Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 1001 of the Federal Rules of Evidence and as construed by the case law in this Circuit. Those terms include, without limitation, each document, thing, and electronic or computerized records, files, and data in your possession, custody, or control, whether a copy, draft, or original, wherever located physically, electronically, or otherwise, with all exhibits, attachments, appendices, work notes and schedules related thereto.

11. “Communication” includes any form of intended, attempted, or actual oral, written, graphic, electronic, or other representation or articulation from one or more persons to one more persons.

12. “Identify” means:

A. in the case of a natural person, documents that state his or her name, business address, title or position, and/or last known business and home telephone number; and

B. in the case of a non-natural person, documents that state the full name, the address of the principal place of business, the telephone number, and/or the name of its chief executive officer and/or president.

13. The terms “each” and “every” include the term “each and every.” “Any” shall include the term “any and all.”

14. The singular of words includes the plural and the plural includes the singular. Masculine, feminine, or neuter pronouns include the other gender(s).

15. The words “and” and “or” have either a disjunctive or conjunctive meaning so as to bring within the scope of these document requests all information that might otherwise be construed to be outside their scope by use of a more restrictive meaning.

16. “Case file” refers to either a collection of related documents or individual documents pertaining to the designated person or event and includes all supporting or referenced documents.

17. “Family reference sample” or “FRS” means a human tissue sample containing Deoxyribonucleic acid (DNA) and intended to assist in the identification of human remains to determine common ancestry. It may also refer to a text narrative or coded representation of DNA rather than a tissue sample containing DNA. The term DNA is used generically to include mitochondrial, nuclear and various related portions and tests.

18. “Field recovery” means the recovery of human remains from other than a designated cemetery.

19. “Unknown” refers to any human remains the identity of which is unknown or which have been designated as non-recoverable even if the identity is known or believed to be known. Includes remains currently interred in a designated cemetery or stored in a designated identification laboratory.

20. “Knowns” refers to any human remains the identity of which has been determined, correctly or incorrectly.

21. “X numbers” or “X files” are the reference numbers assigned to unidentified remains or the documents pertaining to them.

22. “Grave 717” refers to those persons interred in, or human remains recovered from, Cabanatuan POW Camp Cemetery grave number 717. These persons may be known individually by any of the following names, designations or Manila American Military Cemetery grave locations.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. All documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or other tangible things are to be produced at 8438 Fountain Circle, San Antonio, TX 78229. Documents, ESI or other tangible things impractical to produce at the requested address should be made available in the Western District of Texas at a mutually agreed time and location negotiated by counsel.

2. Plaintiff reserves the right to conduct destructive and/or consumptive testing on documents and tangible things produced to Plaintiff. The time, place and proposed test protocol will be provided to Counsel for Defendants at least fourteen (14) days in advance of any such testing.

3. Data primarily archived by Defendants in an electronic format must be provided to Plaintiff in a similar format usable by Plaintiff. All “electronically stored information” (ESI) must be forensically identical to the original including all metadata and dates of creation or modification. Such data may be provided on portable hard disk drives, DVD’s or other mutually agreeable format providing no data or information is modified or lost. Electronically stored data which requires proprietary software to access may be provided in a generic file format such as comma delimited (.csv) if complete data schema are provided which enable reconstruction of the table structure.

4. As used herein, the terms “Document” or “Documents” shall include “things” as well as “ESI.” All documents, things and ESI responsive to a request should be produced, including, without limitation, each copy of an original that differs in any way from the original, whether such difference is caused by deletions, markings on the front or back, format, or any other cause.

5. While portable document format (.PDF) files are preferred in lieu of any other type of photographic reproduction or copy, the submission on any non-original document includes a waiver of any objection as to the authenticity of said electronic copy as true and original copies of the originals, should such copies be offered into evidence. Submission of such copies or reproductions shall constitute such a waiver and the submitting party is thereafter precluded from tendering an objection. Absent such waiver, only original documents should be submitted.

6. Documents and things produced in response to these requests shall be produced together with copies of file labels, dividers, and other identifying markers with which they were associated in the ordinary course of business.

7. Documents, things and ESI produced in response to these requests shall be produced in their entirety, without abbreviation or expurgation, and without redacting any portion therefrom.

8. Documents, things and ESI produced in response to these requests shall be specifically identified or described and further identified as to the request number to which it is responsive.

9. Documents, things and ESI produced in response to multiple requests shall indicate each and every request to which they are responsive.

10. Documents, things and ESI produced in response to these requests shall be produced in a form that renders the material intelligible, legible, and/or capable of reproduction.

11. If any request herein cannot be complied with in full, it shall be complied with to the extent possible, and you should explain why full compliance is not possible.

12. If there are responsive documents, things or ESI within your possession, custody, or control that are privileged or otherwise cannot be produced, please so state. For each such document, thing or ESI, please prepare and submit to Plaintiff a log identifying all information that you contend supports your claim that such information must be withheld, including, without limitation, the following: (a) the privilege(s) or reason(s) for withholding production; (b) the nature of the document or thing (letter, memorandum, handwritten notes, software, audio recording, etc.); (c) date; (d) author(s) and recipient(s); (e) each person to whom such information was available; (f) a general description of the subject matter; and (g) "Bates" or production control numbers. Provide said log at the time of production.

13. Documents, things and ESI produced in response to these requests may be responsive to more than one request. The presence of such duplication shall not be interpreted to narrow or limit the scope of each request. Where a document, thing or ESI is responsive to more than one request, only one copy may be produced. However, you must identify each request to which the duplicate document or thing is responsive.

14. If any requested document, thing or ESI is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, state in detail all of the reason(s) why and identify each such responsive document or thing by author, date, subject matter, addressee, audience, and/or recipient, the number of pages and, where applicable, any other indicator of volume or size.

15. These document requests are continuing so as to require supplemental production as required by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.
